Bfaith Now Member of National Religious Broadcasters (NRB)

CHICAGO -- Beatrice Media, Inc. announced today that our BNS Radio station, Bfaith has officially become a member of the National Religious Broadcasters (NRB). "Formed in 1944, NRB is the world's largest association of Christian communicators whose member organizations represent millions of listeners, viewers, and readers."

DeWitt Hoopes, President of Beatrice Companies said, "It is truly an honor for Bfaith to be a member of NRB, and we as a company are looking forward to participating in this esteemed organization, and helping advance the shared values our two respective organizations have." Mr. Hoopes went on to say that, "It has been a long process in coming to this stage in membership, and working with the great people at NRB, who have been nothing but friendly and professional in every aspect." Mr. Hoopes went on to say that, "Beatrice's transition into a more media centric company has been a long time coming, and our relationships and partnerships with broadcast and ministry entities have helped shape our new and invigorating company in who and what we are."

Bfaith, which is part of the BNS Radio network of Internet radio stations carefully selects its lineup of programming to reflect true Biblical messages, and music. Bfaith also works closely with our ministry partners in our programming to ensure we are delivering truly inspirational programming the whole family can enjoy, and being a part of NRB will only help get our message out, and to also participate with other NRB members and the NRB organization as a whole.
